Welcome to Porchester Hall

Porchester Hall's Grade II listed classic art deco design and understated elegance make it a sought-after venue for weddings of all sorts.

The grand entrance to the Hall is ideal for reception drinks and leads guests up the elegant staircase with its ornamental bronze and wrought banisters, striking marble walls and crystal chandelier. From the stairway, guests are led through to the Main Hall, which is the very essence of grandeur and opulence.

History

Porchester Hall was opened in 1929 alongside the Turkish Baths and Library on Porchester Road. It provided the Borough of Paddington with a dignified Public Hall intended primarily for use by the residents in the area but its beauty and convenience appealed to a wider circle. The foundation stone was laid by the Mayor Leonard Snell, JP, and this can be found at main entrance to the hall.

Main Hall

The grand entrance is ideal for reception drinks and leads guests up the elegant staircase with its ornamental bronze and wrought iron banisters, striking marble walls and crystal chandelier. From the stairway, guests are led through to the Main Hall, which is the very essence of grandeur and opulence. The Hall walls are handsomely panelled in English oak and walnut, with luxurious rich crimson velvet curtains. Fascinating figurines and motifs support the main beams, while ten magnificent crystal chandeliers, adorned in gold leaf effect, hang from the superbly engraved ceiling.

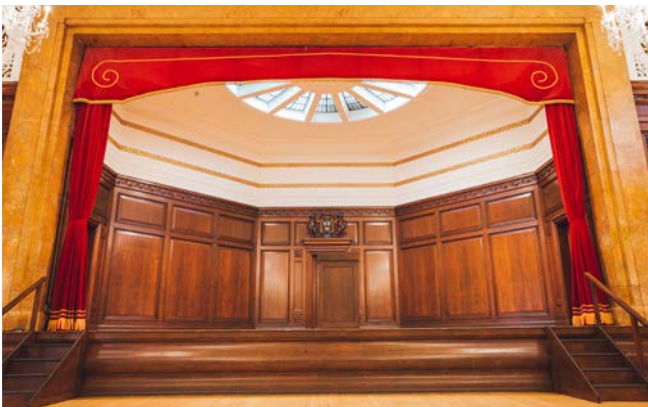

The lavish Main Hall can accommodate up to 600 guests for a standing reception; 450 in theatre style for a ceremony and 450 for a seated dinner.

Small Hall, Duchess of York Suite and Blue Room

There are a number of other charming rooms within the venue - the Small Hall and the Duchess of York Suite - while the Blue Room is ideal for a bridal area or backstage space for the band. The Small Hall is a delightful venue in its own right, ideal for smaller weddings of up to 50 guests.

Food

Delivering a high quality and professional service is key to the continued success of Porchester Hall.

As such we work with a carefully selected group of caterers to provide you with a wonderful selection of menu choices to suit all cultures, tastes and budgets

Drinks

Drinks packages or fully stocked cash bars are available through your caterer.

Alternatively you can supply your own alcoholic drinks for a corkage fee, which includes use of our oak bar. Your chosen caterer will provide glasses, service, chilling and recycling of bottles/ cardboard and the re-boxing of any leftovers for your collection for a service charge, which varies per caterer.
